

Distinguished Service Award

Philip O'Brien is currently the Editor in Chief of Australasian Plant Pathology, a position he has held for several years.

Philip has been lecturer and research fellow at Murdoch University for 27 years. His principal research interests are the plant disease pathogens Rhizoctonia solani and Phytophthora cinnamomi.